

To the FCC,
I'm very worried
about Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to compel
nationwide airing of an anti-Kerry
documentary right
before the election.
This to me is yet
another way that we are in peril of
losing our free
media to conglomerating and
merging.

I don't want
centralized,
electioneering
propaganda on my local tv station, I want local California news. I would hope other communities across the country feel the same way. We don't agree with Sinclair's agenda
here, and they shouldn't be serving
it up nationwide
using their access
to our public airwaves. I don't want Sinclair's
license to be renewed without consideration of whether they are truly serving our country with their actions.

Please consider this
when thinking of the future of media
ownership rules.
thank you!
